

Fall MC Regatta

September 17-18, 1994 Fleet 7 Spring Lake YC, MI

This was one of those glorious fall days in Michigan when you know winter is not too far away, so the enjoyment is extra special.

The wind chairman did a fine job of providing crew-winds of 14-17 mph from the north for Saturday's three races. By ke-time, Charlie Harrett had the lead followed very closely by Peter Fox and Eric Hood.

Sunday morning dawned with nothing but seagulls on the water until about 11:30 when, as predicted by the locals, the Lake Michigan shore breeze marched down the lake and a fourth race made it a regatta. Charlie and Peter faltered and Eric forged the win with a 2nd in this final race.

The favorite social activity of this regatta hinges around the pancake breakfast tradition which was nobly carried on by the younger generation including Kyle Verplank, Nils Reuterdaahl and Justin Hood with help from Matt Young. Of course, the always fun-filled (!) buying expedition was led by Chuck Harrett and Eric Hood.
